Report of Anti Ragging Committee-Academic Year 2025-26

INTRODUCTION: The institute, established in the academic year 2008-09 in accordance with the approval letter issued by AICTE and the State Government of Uttar Pradesh, affiliated with AKTU Lucknow, has been vigilant against ragging because of strict monitoring and active engagement of all members. There have been no reported cases of ragging. Regular interaction with council members and student representatives helped to deter any form of bullying or ragging. The management has ensured transparency by installing CCTV surveillance covering most areas, providing valuable monitoring. Additionally, helpline numbers have been prominently displayed across campus on posters for immediate assistance.

Report on Awareness of Anti-Ragging

A Lecture was organized by Anti ragging committee on 20th September, 2025 on "Awareness of anti-ragging".

Name of Speaker : Prof. (Dr). G. P Govil

Organization name of Speaker: Maharaja Agarsen Institute of Technology
Rohini New Delhi

No. of Students : 91

Timing of Event : 11:30 am onwards

Objective:

The objective of the lecture was to create awareness among students about anti-ragging and its harmful effects, legal consequences, and to promote a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus environment.

Brief Write up on the Programme / Event:

The speaker of the Event, Prof. (Dr). G. P Govil has come from Maharaj Agrasen Institute of Technology, Rohini, New Delhi

. He primarily, emphasized on:

1. Explanation of anti-ragging laws and UGC guidelines
2. Information about institutional anti-ragging mechanisms
3. Awareness of helpline numbers and complaint procedures
4. Interactive session with students

Learning Outcome:

The lecture successfully sensitized students about the seriousness of Anti-ragging and reinforced the institute's zero-tolerance policy. Students gained clarity on their rights and responsibilities, contributing to a positive and safe academic environment.

Feedback:

The feedback received from the participants regarding the Anti-Ragging Awareness Lecture was highly positive. Students found the lecture informative, relevant, and beneficial in understanding the seriousness of anti-ragging and its legal consequences.

The resource persons explained the topic clearly and effectively, using real-life examples and interactive discussions. Students appreciated the detailed information provided about UGC anti-ragging guidelines, institutional policies, and the procedures for reporting incidents. The session helped in reducing fear among first-year students and encouraged them to approach the authorities without hesitation in case of any issue.

The interactive question-and-answer session was particularly appreciated, as it allowed students to clarify their doubts and express their concerns openly. Overall, the lecture succeeded in creating awareness and reinforcing the institute's zero-tolerance policy towards anti-ragging.
